

Secretary Al Collins announces appointment of D'Andrea M. Lancelin as Deputy Secretary
Lancelin brings years of experience and dedication.

This afternoon, Secretary Alvin Collins welcomed D'Andrea M. Lancelin as the new Deputy Secretary for the Department of General Services during a special welcoming luncheon.

"I am pleased to announce that D'Andrea Lancelin will join the General Services Agency as Deputy Secretary. She brings years of experience working as a former employee of mine when I performed the role of Chief of Staff in the Governor's Office," said Secretary Collins. "Ms. Lancelin has held a number of high ranking positions within the headquarters and various modules at the Maryland Department of Transportation (MDOT)."

Ms. Lancelin began her public service career with the State of Maryland a decade ago as the Special Assistant to the Director of Intergovernmental Relations for Governor Parris N. Glendening. She also served as the Director of Board of Public Works and Cabinet Affairs before joining the Maryland Department of Transportation's Office of the Secretary as a Special Assistant to Secretary John D. Porcari. Ms. Lancelin was Chief of Staff for the Maryland Transit Administration.

Prior to her appointment as Deputy Secretary for the Department of General Services, Ms. Lancelin was the Motor Vehicle Administration (MVA) Manager for Statewide Quality Compliance and recently served as the Deputy Administrator for Operations MVA.

Ms. Lancelin received a Bachelor of Science Degree in Business Administration and Master of Business Administration Degree in Information Technology from Morgan State University. She has worked as a Democratic Staff Assistant for the Joint Economic Committee of the U.S. Congress in Washington, D.C. and as Executive Assistant to the National Field Secretary and Special Projects Manager for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People in Baltimore.

Once again, the Maryland Department of General Services would like to welcome newly appointed Deputy Secretary D'Andrea Lancelin. The Department knows through hard work and dedication, it will continue to be a great success in carrying on the tradition of Doing Great Service!
